

CNC Machine Operator

At Detroit Gun Works, we focus on innovation, precision, and manufacturing prowess. We experiment, problem solve, engineer, and automate. We maximize quality and efficiency, minimize costs, and find solutions. We roll up our sleeves and cut metal.

Do you have what it takes to be part of the DGW team?

We're looking for someone that is a go getter, has high energy, and does whatever it takes to get the job done. Detroit Gun Works aims to provide our employees with stimulating and fulfilling work in an environment that nurtures the spirit of learning.

We currently have an opening for an experienced CNC Machine Operator. This is an excellent position with the opportunity for growth for an adept operator.

Desired Experience & Skills

- CNC Programming
- CNC machining experience; multi-axis a plus
- Perform change over's; perform setups a plus
- Basic measuring tools
- An exceptional eye for quality and precision
- Strong general computer skills
- Excellent communication skills

Daily work duties will be divided between projects and tasks related to:

- CNC Programming
- CNC machine cell and robot operation and change over's
- Production issue troubleshooting
- Ensuring quality parts, including checking and analyzing quality data results
- General shop duties as needed

Detroit Gun Works offers competitive pay, a great benefits package, and the potential for quarterly bonuses. Salary based on qualifications and experience. Must pass pre-employment drug test and background check.